Book | Document FidicA World Code - The Yellow book is considered the bible of civil engineering construction. The Yellow book is consulted in providing instructions for builders and engineers involved in the design of construction projects. The Fidic Yellow Book is the sole standard for the "conduct" of engineering contracts in the Fidic System. Volumes of the book are divided into eight sections. Volume I, "Details of Construction", is designed to provide the detailed provisions for the construction of all Building Systems. The key components of a Fidic contract are the "Condition of Contract" and the "Common Conditions". The Fidic Yellow Book is divided into two parts, the "Conditions of Contract" (Volume I) and the "Common Conditions" (Volume II). For a Link to Fidic Yellow Book PDF.
