New Team AI Team AI can now take into account your tactics to make your teammates and opponent make better choices. New Favorites System You can now move your favorite players into your main team and easily create a practice with a single button press. Team Management You can now assign players to specific roles and customize your team including the kits and stadium. Loaded with New Features The introduction of "HyperMotion Technology," brings you unparalleled responsiveness to every move. The depth and quality of the game world has never been closer to your fingertips. New Commentators Scott and Peter Manzie return as the main commentators, joined by a fresh set of analysts and reporters. New Commentary Team The fresh commentary team will use the same base commentary engine as the teams in the World Cup. New Stretches The FIFA World Cup™ allows for new free kicks, corners, and indirect free kicks. Players now have more touches, more dribbles, and more creative freedom in the last 20-30 meters of the field. New Player Kicking Model In the previous version of FIFA, the player kick model used for both shooting and passing was exact. We have implemented a new player kick model, which results in a more natural feel for passing and shooting. Visual Settings for Graphics Now you can choose to show more depth, more highlights, or less detail for the game world. Ladder and Promotion Ladder and Promotion can now be won and lost in the final round of the group stage. Three New World Cups The European Championships, the Confederations Cup, and the Copa América will be played and graded, allowing you to earn more cups throughout the season.

the world's most popular real-life simulation sports game and EA SPORTS FIFA official video game licensee. The game is played online using a top flight team and is based on the English football league system. What is EA SPORTS FIFA? EA SPORTS FIFA is a leading developer of sports video games for both the Sony PlayStation and Microsoft Xbox video game consoles. What is Football™? Football™ is EA SPORTS' principle brand under which its sports games are sold. The 'FIFA' in EA SPORTS FIFA is a reference to the 'Federation Internationale de Football Association,' the international federation for football, of which FIFA is the most prominent member. In the early 1980s, the Football Association has endorsed the FIFA brand and the FIFA series into one of the most recognisable worldwide brands in football. Did EA Sports FIFA 2013 become FIFA? EA SPORTS FIFA 13 was the most popular game ever released by EA SPORTS and became the fastest-selling video game in its time. When will FIFA be released? Release dates are given to the public by the manufacturers, and cannot be predicted. Check the FIFA website for the latest news. How do you feel about the development of the FIFA series? The FIFA series has taken over the gaming market by storm. It has evolved from a major sports simulation to a quality football video game that could satisfy as many sports fans as ever. Why is FIFA so popular? The range of content, the huge fan base and the superior player experience are just some of the factors that have made FIFA the most successful video game of all time. How will FIFA 22 improve over FIFA 21? Thanks to player feedback, gameplay innovations and feature additions, FIFA 21 was the fastest-selling FIFA game ever. FIFA 22 is the biggest FIFA game yet with hundreds of new features across all game modes. What is the Ultimate Team mode in FIFA? In Ultimate Team you are invited to play against others online with their favourite players from some of the world's best football clubs. You start with a small collection of players and buy the stars you need to upgrade your team. Where can you make Ultimate Team purchases? You can buy any player on any team in Ultimate Team. How many clubs are in FIFA 22? There are 21 world-class clubs in FIFA 22.

Why Carl Icahn is still winning battles against upstart Satya Nadella. - vital101 ===== gnoway This is amusing. Icahn is the MSFT-style dissenter, but Nadella is the Apple/sales strategy type, in many ways (Google Play being a notable exception as GM put a strong anti-Apple stance into their strategy). ~~~ wtvanhst Came across this old O'Reilly video years ago[1] about IAC, and it reminds me of MSFT. What's new:

New Team of the Year - The Team of the Year returns, where every club earned their place in and during a complete season. As with previous versions of the Team of the Year, this year's crop of players has a feel of authenticity. Which means that the Professional Team of the Year features, in addition to the 30 best players at each position, the 30 most influential players of the season, including those voted for by the media. FIFA didn't announce the 30 most influential players for leagues that are still underway, but they did already have enough of them selected for the PRO TEAM OF THE YEAR. Thanks, @Gamemonitor!

- New FUT Magic Moments - The fifa 64 "Saturday Superstars" has never seen anything quite like them, and they are back in FUT MOMENTS, celebrating some of the greatest streetfootballer moments in FIFA history. This month's first Magic Moment will showcase the great Brian Bateman - also known as "Bobby" - who, in 1997, became the first player to be sent off inside an FA Cup semi-final (one of the actions that earned him that title). And the second will show Diego Simeone, who took charge of the Rosario club America just one month after this spectacular moment, when he brought that team their only Champions League trophy to this day, against a great performance by the legendary Hugo Sotil of Liverpool FC.

- Microsoft and EA have implemented some significant changes in the way fifa 22 displays matches. The most important are:

- Matchday in FIFA 22 will be entirely balanced in real-time, which means that you won't need to "reload" every few minutes your results

- Edit your weekly team sheet for players, formations, and stadiums, based on your current players and teams. You'll also be able to restart matches if you see any unforced errors, with more advantages than disadvantages
- You'll have two seasons in weekly mode, with separate leaders' tables, saving you hours on pubs.

System Requirements For Fifa 22:

Reviewing the hardware requirements is a little different. We're mainly just looking at the minimum specifications you need to run the game, but be aware that the recommended specs are much higher than that. We'll go over the recommended specs when we review the game itself, though, which will happen next week. Recommended specs for the game: OS: Windows 7, 8.1, 10 (32/64-bit) CPU: Intel Core i5-4460 or AMD Phenom II X4 945 RAM: 8
