

Download Zoiper 2.39 Free Zoiper is an extremely well-rounded softphone software with features such as SIP, IAX, H323, and RTP. It has been in the market for quite some time now and has found a loyal customer base. It is easy to use and is a really powerful app that is capable of performing a lot of tasks. The users can use the softphone in more ways than they can imagine. Their main motive in using the app is to make a call. This frees their hands and they can use the phone 24/7 without having to use any other hardware. However, the desktop version of the app might be a little difficult for an average user. The calls that you make with the app are free, and they will stay free for 24 hours. After that, you will have to pay a small fee of just $1.25. The developers of the app, Avastar Softphone, claim that the phone is completely open source. There are a lot of open source apps that are compatible with the app. You can download any open source softphone at no cost. However, when it comes to Zoiper, it is not open source. It is one of the best softphones that you can download for free. Features: The Zoiper softphone has a lot of high-quality features that you will love. Some of these features are the call recording, the plug-in feature, the audio quality, the firewall protection, and the peer-to-peer mode. Call recording is something that is rarely found in softphones. It is important to record your conversations since it will help you in case of any legal trouble. It will be an invaluable tool for you. You do not have to worry about losing your recordings after you have made the call. The recorder in the app will automatically delete all the recordings after 24 hours. You can also set the number of recordings that you want to save. The plug-in feature in the app is something that you will need for more than one reason. It is especially important if you are using the softphone with more than one telephone number. It will help you in making multiple calls simultaneously. It will not only free up your hands when you are making a call, but it will also save your time. You do not need to worry about saving your time and wasting it in search for a particular telephone number that has a softphone plug-in.
